Commemorative Event – One Year Remembrance

Please see the other side of this flyer for directions to the event and parking information.

Today, September 9, 2011 at 5:30 p.m. the City of San Bruno will be hosting an event on Skyline College's Campus to commemorate the tragic events of the Crestmoor Neighborhood (Glenview area) fire last year. Though it started out to be a small community event, it has evolved into a large media event such that all those desirous of paying their respects and good wishes may do so. Toward that end, yesterday we were advised that we may extend this invitation to our college community should you want to attend. We are expecting families and loved ones from the neighborhood, elected officials and well-wishing public members to attend.

President's Innovation Funds Awarded

Faculty and staff have been awarded the President's Innovation Funds to start or continue many creative and exciting projects. The English Language Institute Offers Real Work Opportunities for ESOL Students

The English Language Institute (ELI) provides nonnative speakers with career, financial, and educational guidance, and the ESOL course, Workplace English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL 803) is an integral part of ELI services. ESOL 803 includes a two-hour per week assignment in which ESOL students build their communication skills working as interns in various locations on campus. Instructional aide Amber Wolak coordinates and supports the internship in collaboration with ESOL 803 instructor Julie Carey.

On Tuesday, September 6, 2011, the ELI, located in SparkPoint at Skyline College in Building 1, hosted a tour and training for the ESOL 803 class. The students met SparkPoint staff and learned about the ELI and other SparkPoint services. The students visited all three of their Fall 2011 work sites including: the Student Activities Center, the English Language Institute, and the front desk of the Learning Center.

Director of the Learning Center Nohel Corral appreciates the collaboration, which provides the Learning Center with needed staffing at the front desk. “Having the ESOL 803 students help support the Learning Center is a fantastic way for these students to build real life professional experience in an interactive educational environment. This class is a help to the interns and to the Center.” The students also appreciate the opportunity to work in a busy location on campus where their communication skills are brought to the front line. “Many nonnative speakers enter jobs that push them to the back of the shop, where their communication skills are hidden, but also never grown. This internship gives students the language and professional skills they need,” says coordinator Leigh Anne Shaw. Special thanks to Amory Cariadus of Student Activities, John Saenz of the Learning Center, and SparkPoint staff Adolfo Leiva, Melanie Espinueva, Patty Kwok, Yraes Guerrero, Amber Wolak, and Glenda Benavides for taking the time to orient the ESOL 803 students. For more information about the ELI, please visit us in room 1218 or on the web at: <http://www.skylinecollege.edu/programsofstudy/languagearts/eli/index.html>

KCBS Radio and KPIX TV Interview Skyline College Students for Reaction to President Obama’s Jobs Creation Address to Congress

On Thursday, September 8, 2011, President Obama delivered an address to Congress to present his plan for job creation. In recent years, significant attention has been given to the role of community colleges in the nation’s workforce and economic development. Workforce development in the United States depends heavily on community colleges, which play a vital role in preparing people for career opportunities. For a local take on the President’s address, KCBS and KPIX visited Skyline College to interview students. Doug Sovern from KCBS visited the SparkPoint Center at Skyline College to interview Grove Scholar, Luis Rubalcaba. As a Grove Scholar, Luis benefits from SparkPoint’s financial education and coaching, and employment services, all of which complement his education plan. Mike Sugarman from KPIX (Channel 5) taped footage in Building 6 (Student and Community Center) of students watching President Obama’s address. Afterward, he interviewed the students to get their reactions to the plan.

Opening next week in the Skyline College Art Gallery

3 Corner Symphony, a group exhibit featuring paintings, sculpture, and mixed media works by Oakland based artist Gregory Wiley Edwards, Boston based artist Fay Grajower, and Calgary based artist Malcolm Mooney. The 3 corners in this case refer to the 3 points on the map that form a triangle between the artists' studios, with a visual symphony developing in the gallery via the combination and intersection of the visual 'sounds' that the artists present. Please join us for the Opening Reception next Thursday, September 15, from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. The reception will be followed at 8:30 p.m. by a live musical performance in the gallery by Malcolm Mooney and the 10th Planet- There is no admission charge for either event, and both will be in the Skyline College Art Gallery, in Building 1. Check the Skyline College Art Gallery website for more information and hours:

The poster features a central image of a sculpture consisting of several spheres of varying sizes and textures, some with labels attached by thin wires. The labels include names like 'MARC WEINSTEIN', 'PETER CONHEIN', 'DEAN SANTOMIERI', 'MALCOLM MOONEY', and 'JIM HRABETIN'. The top of the poster has an orange background with the text 'MALCOLM MOONEY AND THE 10TH PLANET' in a bold, sans-serif font. The bottom of the poster has a dark green background with white text: 'LIVE MUSICAL PERFORMANCE THURSDAY, SEPT. 15 8:30 PM SKYLINE COLLEGE GALLERY'. At the very bottom, there is a small logo for Skyline College and the website address 'www.smccd.edu/accounts/skygallery for more info'.

Malcolm Mooney is a visual and performing artist, and was the original vocalist with the late 60s / early 70's German rock band CAN. Malcolm Mooney's recordings with Can remain highly influential to this day, with Mooney's first album with Can, 'Monster Movie' (1969), defining the Can music sound. He recorded a second album with the band, Soundtracks (1970), before leaving the band in 1970 to return to the United States to focus on his career as a visual artist. In 1986 Mooney rejoined Can to record the reunion album 'Rite Time.' Since then Mooney has continued to make art, write, and work on musical projects including recordings done in the Bay Area with 'Malcolm Mooney & The Tenth Planet'. He has exhibited his work extensively in the U.S. and Europe, and received an MFA from California State University Los Angeles in 1987, and a BFA from Boston University's School of Fine Arts and Applied Arts in 1979.

Gregory Wiley Edwards was raised in Houston, Texas, and came to California to attend Cal Arts and Art Institute of San Francisco. As a student activist, he distinguished himself as teacher of the Black Artist's Seminar, at California Institute of the Arts in 1972. Since that time, his paintings, lithographs and drawings have been exhibited nationally in the U.S., from the Contemporary Arts Museum in Houston, to the Daniel Broder Gallery in New York City. Mr. Edwards has long been known as an arts activist, and got his start in the activism arena with community-based organizations in the civil rights era. Most notably, he worked with Booker Griffin and Jim Brown at the Black Economic Union in Los Angeles in 1967. Edwards was a founding Director of Studio Z - a seminal Los Angeles alternative space, famous for performance, concept and traditional visual art forms on the cutting edge. He has served on the Arts Advisory Panel for The Cultural Affairs Commission for The City of Los Angeles, on Advisory and Grants Panels for The California Arts Council and as Liaison between the National Endowment for the Arts and the U. S. Small Business Administration.

She recently completed and installed a Holocaust Memorial for the new Young Israel of New Rochelle in New York and had the inaugural exhibit at the new El Paso Holocaust Museum in Texas. Her exhibit/installation, where the past meets the future, that traveled through Poland is now traveling through the US, currently at the Florida Holocaust Museum in St Petersburg, FL. Concurrently, her exhibit, Bletern: Images and Words is on view at the Galicia Museum in Krakow, Poland.

SparkPoint Skyline College Welcomes the Student Conservation Association

SparkPoint Skyline College welcomed a Student Conservation Crew from the Student Conservation Association (SCA) on Friday, September 2, 2011, for a tour of SparkPoint as part of their ongoing career exploration activities. According to Bettina Mok, Regional Program Manager for Bay Area Community Programs, the SCA mission is to “create the next generation of environmental conservation leaders.” The SCA Crew who toured SparkPoint is comprised of seven young adults ages 18-24 plus Crew leader, Franklin Escobar. This SCA Crew contributes to San Mateo County conservation efforts with projects designed to improve San Mateo County Parks. Because this SCA Crew is nearing completion of their conservation service, they toured SparkPoint to learn about services and resources that could support their ongoing career development. Thanks to the Skyline College team who conducted the tour: L to R, Patty Kwok, Dennis Mitchell and Glenda Benavides; and R to L, Skyline College Green and Sustainable Programs Project Coordinator, Aaron Wilcher, Julie Lamson, and Adolfo Leiva. For more information about SparkPoint and this story, please contact Dr. William Watson, SparkPoint Director, at 650-738-7035.

Saturday September 10 marks the beginning of the 4th Annual Asian Culture Week and China Dance School and Theatre Performance. The 1st Annual Asian Culture Week was held in 2008 in conjunction with the Asian Studies Program. In 2009 and 2010, China Dance School & Theatre held the Asian Culture Showcase. After a two year hiatus China Dance School once again collaborates with the Asian Studies Center, which hosts the Film and Food Festival from September 12th through 14th. The dance performance kicks off a series of exciting events in celebration of Asian Culture week. China Dance School & Theatre is under the direction of Kaiwen You, our faculty member who teaches the Chinese Dance Workout class. Mr. You hopes this week's festivities encourage cultural exchange to cultivate on-campus diversity. He also hopes to use dance and the performing arts as a medium with which to foster greater understanding between the far East and the West.

Toward a Culture of Inquiry

Skyline College’s Balanced Scorecard

(<http://www.skylinecollege.edu/facstaff/plans/BalancedScorecard.html>) looks at four types of key performance indicators to provide a detailed lens into institutional effectiveness. These four categories are Internal Stakeholders, External Stakeholders, Financial and Operational Performance, and Growth and Innovation. Over the next few weeks, we’ll start by exploring the Internal Stakeholders category.

The first two measures in this category are Retention Rate and Persistence Rate. “Retention Rate” refers to the percentage of students who are present on Census Day in a class who are retained through the semester to receive a grade – even if it is an unsuccessful grade (two other Scorecard metrics deal with Success Rates). “Persistence Rate” refers to the percentage of students who persist from a given Fall Semester to enroll in the subsequent Spring Semester.

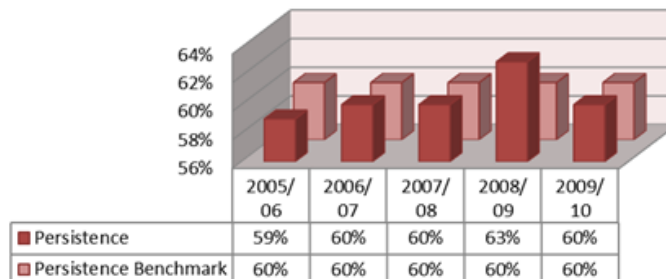

Looking at the data from the last five years, we see that both of these metrics have been relatively constant and have largely met our established benchmark goal. Our college retention rate started at 84% in the 2005/06 year, and after dropping slightly to 83% and 82% in 2006/07 and 2007/08, has risen back to 84% in both 2008/09 and 2009/10. We had set our college benchmark at 84%, so we met the goal in three of the five years, including the last two years.

Retention

The college’s persistence rate started at 59% in 2005/06, and was 60% in three of the next four years. Aside from an upward jump to 63% in 2008/09, this metric has proved extremely consistent as well. Our benchmark had been set at 60%, so we met the goal in four of the past five years, including the last four years.

Persistence

As with all of our Balanced Scorecard metrics, it is often useful to disaggregate the key performance data on a variety of variables, most notably including ethnicity, age, gender, and developmental education status. The Research & Planning office is undertaking this more detailed work during this academic year for all of the Scorecard items, and we will be reporting key findings here in Skyline Shines and through campus committees.

Please feel free to contact Rob Johnstone or David Ulate in the Research & Planning office with any comments or questions!

From the Suggestion Box

Weird Weather!

A student made a suggestion that we send out a text message giving a weather report because "Every time I come to Skyline College the weather is weird!" Well, let's thank him or her for the suggestion and in lieu of sending out weather reports, encourage all to know that the beauty of being on ocean front property is that we have our own micro-climate. Weird weather or not, the college is quite a beautiful place to be. ☺
